Citation

The judges noted that all the nominated agencies are punching above their weight and are delivering impressive work for international and local clients.

However, the judges were unanimous in selecting AM O'Sullivan PR as the winning agency that stood out because of its national reach and local presence in successfully representing global brands.

About AM O'Sullivan PR

AM O'Sullivan PR is an award-winning, Cork-based strategic communications consultancy. As the only non-Dublin based member of PRCA Ireland, the company is a world-class business supporting global brands from Cork.

The AM O'Sullivan PR team is passionate about providing a first-class service to its clients and developing trust with its suppliers and the media. Professional and personal integrity and confidentiality are at the core of the business.

In 2019, AMOSPR's business objectives were to:

1. Stabilise and grow the business financials.
2. Position AMOSPR as the agency of choice.
3. Broaden the client base to reflect AMOSPR's scale, diversity and breadth of experience.

AM O'Sullivan PR is recognised as an agency of choice for strategic communications, issue and crisis management, particularly in the Munster region. Extensive work was done over the past 12 months to refresh the logo, business templates and website. The consultancy also joined IBEC and became a partner in IPREX, the global communications platform.
